

PRIVACY STATEMENT

1. Collection, use, and processing of personal data

The National Bvba, with its registered offices at Brand Whitlocklaan 42, 1200 Brussels, registered with the Belgian Crossroads Bank for Enterprises under number 0647.941.697 ('The National'), is responsible for processing your personal data on the website www.thenational.be.

When you register on the website of The National, certain personal data about you and/or your reference(s) will be requested, including name, email, address, date of birth, telephone number, native language, professional activity, employer, data about your family situation, golfing experience, contact information, and references.

The National will process this personal data in the context of your The National membership request. We will use the personal data and other information about you and your reference(s) that you submitted via the site or that was collected when you registered to evaluate your candidacy, when deciding to accept your membership request to The National, to provide you with information on your membership request, or to provide you with the requested information.

The personal data can also be used for sending (automated or otherwise) email messages or other electronic and/or mail correspondence, or marketing information concerning our golf club and related services.

You hereby declare that all information that you have submitted about yourself and your reference(s) is correct and reliable. You will inform The National of any changes to this data via info@thenational.be.

All personal data is stored for the period of your membership and/or for the period necessary for The National to provide its services.

2. Communication of personal data

The National may communicate the received personal data with companies within its own group.

We will also communicate the personal data to external partners when required or appropriate, directly or indirectly in relation to the Sterea project, golf games, or golf tournaments.

Insofar as is required or appropriate, we can communicate information to government institutions, law enforcement officials, care providers, and other third parties to comply with safety, medical healthcare, applicable legislation, the pronouncement of legal procedures, or if we are reasonably certain that we must do it.

3. Right to access and update personal data

If you wish to make use of your right to view and update your personal data or that of your reference(s), to oppose the use of the personal data for direct marketing purposes, or if you have other questions related to the processing of the personal data, then please contact The National at Du Roy de Blicquy laan 7, 1933 Sterrebeek, via the secretariat (02/ 767 39 69), or via info@thenational.be.

However, you cannot oppose the processing of your personal data if this is necessary for the execution of your contractual obligations.

If you do not wish to share certain personal data, then you must be aware that you can be denied membership or certain services.
